1L MENTORING PROGRAM

Interested?

The 1L Mentoring program provides alumni of Seattle University School of Law with an opportunity to interact with and engage, in a meaningful way, with current law students. You are invited to share your knowledge, your experience and advice, which is especially helpful to first-year students navigating law school and learning more about the legal profession. Your participation serves to provide an additional resource to students and will over time build a stronger alumni network.

Matches will be made according to full or part-time status first when possible, and then a few additional criteria as indicated by the students, when possible. This program is organized by both Alumni Relations and Student Affairs.

How many students would you be willing to mentor? 1 2

ALUMNI MENTORING PROGRAM

Interested?

This new mentorship opportunity between seasoned and recent alumni will help individuals achieve their personal and professional goals and will foster a stronger alumni community, as a result helping to build support for the law school. Alumni of Seattle University School of Law represent the very best of the legal profession—ethical, competent and committed to justice—and are therefore uniquely qualified to serve as an additional resource to their alumni colleagues.

The program is facilitated by the Office of Alumni Relations in partnership with the Recent Alumni Committee.

ALUMNI AMBASSADOR

Interested?

The Alumni Ambassador program provides admitted students access to SU School of Law graduates, to inquire about their law school experiences and the legal profession, and gain their perspective on a myriad of issues. Ambassadors provide their name, geographic region, undergraduate institution, and contact information so newly admitted students may connect with someone from a similar part of the country or a fellow alumnus of their undergraduate institution.

The program is facilitated by the Office of Admissions.

FUTURE VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Interested?

The Center for Professional Development at the law school seeks alumni volunteers to serve in a variety of capacities, including panelists at career programs, mock interviewers, and informational interviewers for students interested in a particular area of practice or geographic region. If you are interested in volunteering, even on a limited basis, please check the box.

Thank you for your response.
